RTI Committee

The Right to Information (RTI) Act, 2005 is a landmark legislation that enables citizens to seek information from public authorities. In the context of higher education institutions, the RTI Act plays a critical role in promoting transparency and accountability in the functioning of these institutions. As an progressive step towards ensuring Transparency in Functioning of our institution, Shri Sharadchandraji Pawar Senior College, Narangwadi has established RTI Committee.

Under the RTI Act, any citizen can submit an application to the Public Information Officer (PIO) of Shri Sharadchandraji Pawar Senior College Narangwadi seeking information about its functioning. The types of information that can be sought under the RTI Act include admission procedures, fee structures, examination results, academic records, and other information related to the functioning of the institution.
