Student Grievance Redressal Cell (SGRC)

The objective of a Student Grievance Redressal Cell (SGRC) at Shri Sharadchandraji Pawar Senior College, Narangwadi is to provide a platform for students to voice their grievances and to address them in a timely and effective manner. The SGRC serves as a mechanism for redressing complaints and grievances related to academic and non-academic matters.

Objectives

- To provide a fair and impartial process for addressing student grievances.
- To ensure that grievances are resolved in a timely manner.
- To provide a safe and confidential environment for students to report their grievances.
- To provide guidance and support to students who have been subjected to harassment or discrimination.
- To help students resolve conflicts and disputes with faculty members, staff, or other students.

Functions

- Receiving and resolving student grievances: The SGRC is responsible for receiving and resolving complaints and grievances related to academic and non-academic matters, such as unfair evaluation, discrimination, harassment, or any other issues that affect the academic or personal life of the students.

- Facilitating informal resolution: The SGRC can facilitate informal resolution of complaints by encouraging communication between the parties involved in the grievance and seeking resolution through mediation or conciliation.
- Conducting investigations: The SGRC can conduct investigations into complaints and grievances to gather information and evidence related to the matter.
- Maintaining records: The SGRC maintains records of all complaints and grievances received, including the nature of the complaint, the resolution process followed, and the outcome.
- Advising and guiding students: The SGRC advises and guides students on the procedures for filing a complaint or grievance, and provides information on the support services available to students.
