

Workshop Report: Plagiarism and Unethical Practices in Research

Date: 9th October 2019

Venue: Shri Sharadchandraji Pavar Senior College, Narangwadi

The Workshop on Plagiarism and Unethical Practices in Research, conducted by Dr. S.E. Munde from BSS College, Makani, was organized at Shri Sharadchandraji Pavar Senior College, Narangwadi, with the aim of raising awareness about academic integrity and promoting ethical conduct in research.

Dr. S.E. Munde, an esteemed academician and researcher, led the workshop with expertise and passion. The workshop commenced with an introduction to plagiarism and unethical practices, highlighting their detrimental effects on academic integrity and the credibility of research outcomes.

Throughout the workshop, Dr. Munde elucidated various forms of plagiarism, including direct copying, paraphrasing without attribution, and self-plagiarism. Participants gained insights into the importance of proper citation practices, referencing conventions, and the ethical responsibilities of researchers.

Attendees actively engaged in interactive discussions and case studies, which facilitated a deeper understanding of plagiarism-related issues and challenges. Dr. Munde shared practical strategies for identifying and avoiding plagiarism, emphasizing the significance of originality and honesty in scholarly endeavors.

In addition to plagiarism, the workshop also addressed other unethical practices in research, such as data fabrication, falsification, and authorship misconduct. Dr. Munde underscored the ethical principles and professional standards that researchers should uphold to maintain the integrity of their work.

The presence of Dr. A.C. Patil from BSS College further enriched the workshop, providing additional insights and perspectives on the topic. Participants benefited from the collective expertise and experience of both facilitators, gaining valuable knowledge and guidance on navigating ethical dilemmas in research.

In conclusion, the Workshop on Plagiarism and Unethical Practices in Research served as a valuable platform for promoting academic integrity and ethical conduct among students and faculty. The workshop received positive feedback from attendees, who expressed appreciation for the opportunity to enhance their awareness and understanding of ethical issues in research.
